To Serve

By Jenny Deweese

Why should I be a volunteer? I have my own life to live.
How many lives could you bless and extend if you only had time to give—time to spend at the coffee house, the zoo, the park, the gym?
Why should I be a volunteer? I've worked hard for what I've got.
How many lies could be undone by your telling kids what they're not—they're not losers, not brats, not ugly, not fat?
Why should I be a volunteer? Time is money, my friend.
How much value does money have without a noble end—a meal, a shave, clean clothes, and shoes are worth whatever you spend.
Why should I be a volunteer? My schedule is packed, you see.
How many changes could all of us make in our view of priority?
Why should I be a volunteer? I like to travel and roam.
How many souls could your story lead to their eternal, Heavenly Home?
