

"Preach the gospel, die and be forgotten."
— Count Zinzendorf

We are praising the Lord for many blessings. Mikaela has finished her first year of college! It looks like the Polish government is going to open airports starting on May 24, so Lord willing, we will be flying to the USA at the end of May to spend the summer with Mikaela. We will be staying in Midland, MI where the girls hope to find summer jobs. The Polish school year ends on June 26. So, Sarah will be teaching online while Maia and Aleyna will also have an entire month of Polish school online.

The Siedlce church is busy working to minister to the church of Jesus Christ in Poland:

Two ladies from the Siedlce church, Ania and Gosia, volunteered their time to translate and proofread a wonderful book by Nancy Wilson entitled "Learning Contentment." It has been published and made available and many are enjoying it.

One of our extraordinarily talented young men Szymon, has recently translated the hymn "He will Hold me Fast" into Polish. We are hoping that it will be a blessing to our two churches as well as to others throughout the country.

Thanks to a few generous donations and the hard work of one of the young men in the Siedlce church we have had translated into Polish the video series "The God Who is There" by D.A. Carson. Jan has created an amazing website where it and many other resources will be available.

I am immensely proud of this small church in Siedlce. There are not many of us, but it is a great privilege to be a part of what God is doing here. He has given us a small team of servants ready and willing to quietly serve the body of Christ in Poland.

Thank you for faithfully partnering with us,
Ben (for Sarah, Mikaela, Maia and Aleyna)
